Suspected Illicit Substance Detected at Nadi Airport

Fiji Islands Revenue & Customs Authority (FIRCA) managed to seize a baggage containing clothes soaked in what is believed to be illegal substances on Wednesday, 26th January 2011. Two people, one believed to be an Indian national while the other an American national have been apprehended and handed over to Border Police at the Nadi International Airport.

This interception had been successful through the combined effort of Fiji Police and FIRCA through the Transnational Crime Unit.
