FRCA – B bogus Tax Returns

The Fiji Revenue and Customs Authority, following an internal investigation on the lodgement and processing of bogus Tax returns, is handing over to the Police Department, its findings on the case.

The Authority is providing all the assistance required by the Police for the investigations required and will take serious actions of persons involved.

It is to be noted that the Authority has already tight internal controls in place to assist our Operations officers in ensuring that such alleged fraudulent transactions not occur in future.

Important information that could assist the Police investigation could be reported to the Authority in confidence.
