

Press Release

FIRCA Launches Revamped Website

The Fiji Islands Revenue and Customs Authority (FIRCA) will be launching its revamped website on Thursday 26 April 2007 at JJ's on the Park at 6.00pm.

Permanent Secretary for Finance Mr. Peceli Vocea will be the Chief Guest.

The revamped website aims to provide all the necessary information the taxpayers, customs agents and the general public need.

Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Tevita Banuve said, "Our main objective is to promote FIRCA as well as create extensive awareness on tax and customs issues so as to help generate voluntary compliance. We hope to lift the standard of our website to be on par with that of other leading tax authorities,"

You are invited to send a reporter, photographer and cameraperson to cover the launching.

Tevita K. Banuve

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

25th April 2007

