

Press Release

31st July 2007

The Fiji Islands Revenue and Customs Authority (FIRCA), Board Chairman Mr. Filipe Bole, is concerned with the public release of taxpayer information recently displayed in the Daily Post.

Mr. Bole stated that tax information regarding taxpayers cannot be released without the consent of taxpayers. That such information is protected without compromise, under Section 4 of the Income Tax Act. FIRCA is therefore committed in upholding the Law, in all tax related matters.

This is a serious matter and the Board will address this issue.
